

Curriculum Overview

Year 3 Term 1

Topic: Stone Age to Iron Age

English

We will be writing; diaries, instructions, poetry, recounts, a character description and a narrative. We will also be acting out character's feelings and joining in with a class debate. We will also enjoy sharing 'The Iron Man' by Ted Hughes together in class during Reading.

Maths

Place Value
Mental Calculations
Written Addition
Written Subtraction
Written Division
Written Multiplication

Science

Sound - What is sound? Looking at the human ear. Investigating how distance and strength affect sound, finding patterns in the pitch of a sound

History

- Discover how prehistoric man lived
- Exploring Skara Brae
- The Amesbury Archer
- How did bronze change life in the Stone Age?
- How did trade change the iron Age?

D.T

Designing Celtic Art

P.E

To use a good running technique and run at different speeds.

Computing

We will be learning about safety online, digital footprints, learning how computing networks help us access the internet and we will be creating an animated story.

PSHE

Being me in my world- Learning about our rights and responsibilities

Art

Drawing Stone Age animals, a Stone Age house and creating a cave drawing.

Music

We will be learning how to recall sounds and create simple rhythmic patterns.

M.F.L

To be able to greet each other, introduce yourself and count to 10.

R.E

We will be learning about how we exercise trust and faith. We will be understanding why people believe in God.