

KEY VOCABULARY

faith

faith is when you trust or believe in something or someone religion

religion is when people have special beliefs about God, gods, or how the world was made; it can also help them learn how to live kindly, make good choices and take care of others

Christianity

followers of Christianity are called Christians and believe in one God

Judaism

followers of Judaism are called Jews and believe in one God

Islam

followers of Islam are called Muslims and believe in one God, called Allah sacred place

a place that is special to someone, connected to someone's faith

worship

showing love and loyalty to something (such as a god in a chosen religion)

congregation

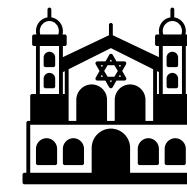

a group of people who have come together for religious worship

Places of Worship

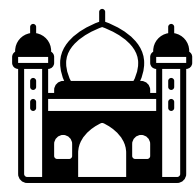

church

a church is an important place of worship for Christians synagogue

a synagogue is an important place of worship for Jews mosque

a mosque is an important place of worship for Muslims

Inside a place of worship you may see:

praying

singing

reading sacred texts